German Speed Soldiers Push On To Moscow

Advance Units Near Smolensk, 25 Miles from Moscow; Russians Say Advance Checked at 2 Main Sectors

(By the Associated Press.)
After all-night fighting, Russian troops declared today they had checked the advance of German invasion forces at two main sectors of the 100-mile battlefront—in the Minsk-Brobuisk and Luck areas—Lloyd. Nazis are striking directly toward Moscow and the Soviet capital.

The Soviet armies surrounded between Bialystok and Minsk vainly made desperate attempts the day to break out of the vise, the Nazi communiqué said. Approximately 400,000 Russian troops are reported caught in the Nazi trap. The German war bulletin declared that the Russians, charging in formations eight to 12 tanks and supported by heavy tanks, "collapsed with unusually bloody losses."

Radio reports from Stockholm said Riga, the capital of Sovietized Latvia, had fallen into Nazi hands. The German war bulletin declared that the Russians, charging in formations eight to 12 tanks and supported by heavy tanks, "collapsed with unusually bloody losses."

French off-stage role in the 10-day-old struggle moved nearer the actual fighting with a statement by the Vichy French government that it had "no objection" to French volunteers fighting alongside their former enemies, the Germans.

Only yesterday France broke off diplomatic relations with Russia. The radio said Chamberlain decided on "the war against Moscow and the destruction of the Red army" at their latest Brenner pass meeting, June 2.

A Berlin radio broadcast said German Bavarian Alpine troops, in violent action at Lwow, former Poland, had destroyed 100 Soviet tanks with hand grenades.

Report from Moscow
A Russian communiqué tersely sketched the huge-scale conflict as follows:

"In the Minsk and Brobuisk directions, our troops fought all night against superior enemy forces, successfully counteracting their attempts to thrust toward the east. Minsk lies 20 miles inside the old Soviet frontier. Brobuisk is about 50 miles southeast of Minsk. The communiqué also declared that the Red army had stemmed the Nazi onslaught toward the Ukraine, counter-attacking and destroying German tanks.

Far up in the Arctic, the communiqué said, "fierce clashes with the German troops are in progress...the enemy is suffering considerable losses." This was in the

J-P NAMED IN TRUE BILL ON MARRIAGE FEE

Lisbon Justice Accused of Overcharging New Castle Couple

ACTION IS TAKEN BY PROBATE JUDGE

Addresses Fictitious In 89 Out of 91 Cases, Hammond Finds

LISBON, July 1.—A Columbiana county grand jury provided legal support today to Probate Judge Homer W. Hammond's drive against illegal marriages in returning an indictment against a Lisbon justice of the peace.

The defendant, M. K. Zimmerman, who was indicted secretly, pleaded not guilty to a charge of extortion when he appeared this morning before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp. Bond was set at $500.

The jurors, in a special one-day session yesterday, returned nine true bills, two of them being secret.

Hammond Before Jury
Zimmerman was indicted by the grand jury after Probate Judge Hammond appeared personally before the jurors, told of innumerable cases where girls gave fictitious Columbiana county addresses in order to obtain licenses to wed, and then he produced a sworn statement of a New Castle, Pa., couple who were married earlier this month by Zimmerman.

Actually, the justice is charged in the indictment with taking $14 from the couple, after he married them, in violation of a state law which stipulates a $3 fee for a justice of the peace in performing a marriage.

Zimmerman, according to the judge, told the couple at the time that $10 was for himself and $4 for a Lisbon doctor who had made an examination of the girl to substantiate the girl's claim that she was pregnant.

The New Castle couple came to Zimmerman's Lisbon office at the recommendation of another couple whom he had married, the judge said. The justice, however, informed them that a five-day waiting period had been established by Judge Hammond.

When the girl said she was an expectant mother, Zimmerman is alleged to have told them that he could perform a marriage ceremony if a doctor signed a medical report in order that the license could be obtained immediately from the court.

The couple, according to the statement, memorized a county address for the girl in order that she might obtain a license. After

O'DANIEL LEADING IN TEXAS CONTEST

Governor Appears to Have Won Senate Race By Slim Margin

(By Associated Press)
DALLAS, July 1.—Gov. W. Lee O'Daniel took the lead today over Lyndon Johnson, New Deal congressman, in their neck-and-neck race for the United States senatorship.

With about 1,000 ballots from Saturday's special election yet to be counted, the ex-flour salesman executive had overcome Johnson's slim margin and forged ahead by a dozen votes. Rep. Martin Dies, foe of un-American activities, was in fourth place and out of the running.

With 238 of the 234 counties complete, O'Daniel had a total of 173, 674 votes and Johnson, the Roosevelt-voted candidate, showed 173, 662.

When the bureau closed its tabulation for the night Johnson held a lead of 77 votes.

Running third, but hopelessly out of the race, was Gerald C. Mann, state attorney general, with 139,844 votes. Dies had 80,135.

35 ON CRUISER THOUGHT DEAD

Recover Five Bodies From Picnic Party; Ship Still Missing

(By Associated Press)
HARPSWELL, Me., July 1.—The discovery of five bodies—one of them badly burned—led searchers to believe today that all of the 35 members of a gay picnic party which set out Sunday on the 44-foot cabin cruiser Don might have perished after fire swept the boat.

The tragedy, the worst in the memory of residents of this rocky coast, apparently occurred in the fog-enshrouded waters of lower Casco bay while the party of Rumford, Me., residents was returning from Monhegan island, 40 miles from here in the open Atlantic.

Explosion Blamed
Carlton Smith, one of the many searchers, said that "undoubtedly" there had been an explosion aboard the heavily loaded Don.

He spoke after bringing ashore a body identified as that of Miss Elizabeth Howard, a Rumford bank employee. She had suffered bad burns on her legs and one hip.

The first five bodies found were those of women. Four of them were identified quickly as those of Miss Howard, Miss Ruth Hemmingsway, Rumford housekeeper, Miss Bessie Strople, Rumford bank clerk, and Miss Anne Stasulis, also a bank employee.

Wrist watches on two of the women had stopped at the same minute.

21-YEAR-OLDS REGISTER FOR ARMY SERVICE

ASHLAND MAN IS FIRST TO SIGN UP

Assignment of Numbers to Be Deferred Pending Card Exchange

Ohio's "new men"—some 42,500 citizens who have become 21 years old since last October—signed up for possible military training today under the nation's second peacetime selective service registration.

At noon today a total of 73 youths had been registered in the Salem draft board district, including 60 at the Salem headquarters in the Memorial building, nine at Columbiana and four at East Rochester.

Waiting for the office to open here at 7 this morning was Ralph Sherman Shearer of Ashland, a tree surgeon who is working in this vicinity. His draft card will be forwarded to his home board.

The first Salem man to sign was George Edward Lee.

Assignment on July 9
The Salem board was instructed by Major G. Wahl, chief of the man-power division of the Ohio Selective Service system, to file figures on the registration tomorrow. Wahl said that assignment of serial numbers would be deferred until July 9 to permit an interchange of cards on persons who registered outside the proper draft area.

The noon registration in the Lisbon draft region was: Lisbon, 15; East Palestine, 20; Sallenville, 3; Wellsville, 15. At East Liverpool 62 registered by noon and at Rogers, 7.

From 50 to 70 per cent of the new registrants are expected to become Class I-A men, draft officials said, whereas only 10 per cent of the first group have been found eligible for this classification.

Maj. M. Ray Allison, Ohio draft chief, said the new signers represent "the cream of the crop" of Ohio's manhood and the I-A classification percentage undoubtedly would run much higher than under the first registration.

"Few of these boys—maybe 15 per cent—have any dependents," Allison said, "and few will be in defense-necessary jobs and most of them will be physically fit."

At county centers, the United States enrolled its military "class of 1941"—some 750,000 young men who have just reached 21.

Both the War department and Selective Service headquarters made it plain that the Army is Reese was arrested by State Patrolman Cornelius Csepke on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

Three motorists who were arrested yesterday by the state patrol drew fines of $10 and costs each in Mayor Norman Phillips' court. They are Max S. Silver of Canton, charged with reckless driving, George Heiner of Deerfield, reckless driving, and Frank W. Guy of R. D. 5, Lisbon, charged with speeding.

Morton Goldberger of Youngstown arrested on a charge of reckless driving, was fined $5 and costs by Mayor George Wilson at Canfield.

Two jacks were reported stolen from the scene of the S. Broadway storm water sewer job within the past few days.

NINE TRUE BILLS RETURNED BY JURY

Three Niles Youths Jointly Indicted In Service Station Robbery

SALEM, July 1—The April grand jury completed a one day session, returning nine true bills, two of which are secret, ignoring one case and referring another to the juvenile court, in the clearing up of criminal matters before the adjournment of common pleas court for the summer, about the middle of July.

The cases made public include two charges of breaking and entering in which John William Bossen of East Liverpool, Clark Jones of Wellsville, and Lewis Balsh of Sharon, Pa., were jointly indicted for the robbery of the Scott Lumber Co. office and the Ware & Stone room in Wellsville.

Bossen and Jones were also jointly indicted on two counts of auto theft, one involving the theft of a car from the Turk Motor Sales in East Liverpool, and another from the Wellsville Ford Motor Co. of that city.

Three Niles youths, Jack Sharrow, Dennis U. Carnes, and John Collins Damon, were jointly indicted in another count of breaking and entering in connection with the robbery of the Jackson service station in Salem a few weeks ago.

Two other counts include Charles Monroe, alias Butch Munroe, colored of East Liverpool, charged with sodomy, and Douglas Fagan of Alliance, charged with neglect to provide for a pregnant woman.

The charge of auto theft against Lloyd Guy of East Palestine was ignored and the case, charging Paul Powers of Knox township with breaking and entering was referred to the juvenile court.

All prisoners named in indictments made public are now either under bond or confined in the Mahoning county jail, and, with those named in secret indictments, will be arraigned in common pleas court before Judge Joel H. Sharp, at 1 p. m. to enter pleas to charges in their indictments.

The bride is a graduate of Columbiana high school, class of 1941, while Mr. Ridel attended North Lima high school. He is employed by the General Fireproofing company, Youngstown. The young couple will reside in Columbiana.

this crucial year," as Knox phrased it—may represent a decisive opportunity for Britain, if Soviet Russia holds out, they added, hence the need for seeing that all the lease-lend supplies reach her as soon as they are available.

They reasoned that the greater pressure Britain can apply in other theatres of war, the better Russian chances. Continued RAF onslaughts of greater intensity in the west might force the recall of some Luftwaffe squadrons for defense, thereby lessening the air strength available against Russia in the east. Hit-and-run descents by raiding parties along the lengthy German-held coastline likewise could create diversions calculated to keep the reich from reducing garrisons to reinforce the army in Russia.

"Time to Strike"
"Now is the time to strike," Knox said.

"If, while Hitler is assaulting Stalin," he declared, "we can clear the path across the Atlantic, and deliver the weapons our factories are producing, ultimate defeat for Hitler is certain."

"America," he told the governors in an address interrupted nine times by applause, "must wake up, not alone to its dangers, and the dangers are real and fearsome, but to the realities of the sacrifice demanded."

"We must, if need be, match with American tears, American toil, American sweat and yea, American blood, the toil, the tears, the sweat and the blood which Britain has gallantly spent to hold in check the devastating spread of Nazi power throughout the civilized world."

"The time is here now to use our navy to clear the Atlantic of the German menace," he declared.

LITTLE CHATS ON PUBLIC NOTICES

By J. E. Pollard, Journalism Professor, Ohio State University

He Meant Business

Credited to the Highway Traveler, the following notice ascribed to an unidentified rural weekly was reprinted by Reader's Digest:

Anyone found near my chicken house at night will be found there next morning.

Here, in essence, is the public notice in its most forthright and primitive form. All joking aside, the unnamed chicken fancier was serving notice that he proposed to protect his rights. The protection of rights, public and private, is the prime function of the public notice.

Whether the story is real or just the product of someone's imagination, another point is worth noting. This is that the warning was given through the columns of a newspaper. Without venturing into possible legal complications, the assumption is that the notice was published where it would most likely be seen. In real life, whether in the city or in rural areas, the newspaper of general circulation is the medium best suited and most readily available for this purpose.

OHIO'S 37TH BACK AFTER MANEUVERS

CAMP SHELBY, Miss., July 1.—Back home from war maneuvers, Ohio's 37th division nursed mosquito bites today and looked forward to an extended Fourth of July week-end celebration.

The 18,000 Buckeye soldiers who participated in the war games at Camp Claiborne, La., completed the return trip—the biggest motor convoy yet attempted by America's defense army—without mishap, and drew praise from their commander, Maj. Gen. Robert S. Beightler for their actions in the field exercises.

"Their performance was 'outstanding,' he said. 'Their cheerfulness and efficiency in the face of great difficulties was frankly amazing.'"

The division now resumes basic training until Aug. 10 when the trek to Louisiana will be repeated. Then the 37th will participate in gigantic maneuvers ending Sept. 30.

Storm Bound

BENTON HARBOR, Mich.—The Berrien county highway department got scores of calls for storm aid but was literally halted in its tracks.

The same storm that felled trees across highways also blew down power lines—the highway department's electrically-operated garage doors couldn't be opened.

Mortgage loan rates are still at the lowest levels on record in the Salem district.

Elizabeth Wallis, Youngstown Bride of George W. Ballantine

Before a fireplace setting of palms, white gladioli, Madonna lilies and feverfew, lighted by white cathedral candles in tall holders, Miss Elizabeth Wallis of Youngstown and George Woods Ballantine of Cleveland exchanged marriage vows in a ceremony at 8:30 p. m. Monday at the Youngstown Country club.

Dr. Howard D. Talbot, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Youngstown, officiated at the ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Lloyd Richard Wallis of Youngstown, wore a gown of Chantilly lace and white marquisette and carried white roses, stephanotis and orchids. The gown was fashioned with lace bodice, short sleeves and full skirt of the marquisette with hem-edge ruffle of the lace. Her illusion veil was arranged in a coronet of heirloom rose point lace. She wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Her attendants were Miss Ann Wallis, her sister, as maid of honor; Mrs. Robert Renner of Youngstown and Mrs. Emmett Echols of Milwaukee as matrons of honor; Miss Josephine Bygate of Pittsburgh as bridesmaid; and Nancy Wallis of Youngstown and Dorothy Jane Hanna of Massillon, cousins of the bride, as flower girls.

Attendants in White

Attendants' gowns, all white, were of the same design as the brides, in shadow Chantilly lace and marquisette. They wore coronation caps of white pearls. The maid of honor carried pink gladioli, yellow roses, pink daisies and yellow Marguerites. Bouquets of the other attendants were of orchid gladioli, yellow roses, pink daisies and yellow Marguerites.

The little flower girls, carrying baskets of sweet peas and white daisies, wore long frocks of white marquisette with lace trim.

Mrs. Wallis, mother of the bride, wearing cocoa brown lace and chiffon, and Mrs. Frank Ballantine of Salem, mother of the groom, in heavenly blue silk jersey, wore corsages of orchids.

Private Jack Ballantine of Champaign Field, Rantoul, Ill., acted as his brother's best man. Ushers were Ernest Wilson and William K. Gibson of Youngstown, James Pidgeon, Jr., Robert and James Ballantine, brothers of the groom, of Salem.

COLUMBUS MAN IS STATE FOOD CHIEF

COLUMBUS, July 1.—In a move designed to centralize food buying for 38,000 inmates in Ohio institutions, the post of state food supervisor was set up today by Welfare Director Charles L. Sherwood.

Frank L. Cheek, 41, of Columbus, was appointed to the position which Sherwood estimated would bring about savings of "thousands of dollars" annually in the face of climbing food costs. Ohio spent $2,000,000 last year to feed inmates of 23 institutions, he added.

Cheek was advanced from supervisor of subsistence at Ohio penitentiary, where only recently he installed the cafeteria system of feeding prisoners. His salary will be increased from $2,220 to $3,000 annually. Cheek served as steward in various Ohio hotels, including those at Lima and Steubenville, before joining the welfare department.

Meanwhile, Warden Frank J. Henderson announced appointment of Dr. John B. C. Ekkstorm of Columbus as chief physician at Ohio penitentiary. He succeeds Dr. George W. Keil who has been transferred to the Ohio Soldiers and Sailors' home in Sandusky.

Funny Coincidence

HUNTINGTON, Ind.—Judge Otto H. Krieg was trying a divorce case when there was a terrific din in a street outside the courtroom.

He declared a recess so that everybody could go to windows and see what was up.

Friends of a couple just married were serenading them.

Theatre Attractions

"West Point Widow", featuring Anne Shirley, with Richard Carlson, Richard Denning, Frances Gifford, Maude Eburne, Janet Beecher and Cecil Kellaway, will be seen Wednesday only at the State theater.

One of the West Point rules for cadets is that marriage is forbidden while they are cadets. The story concerns a West Point football hero who secretly marries a pretty nurse, who must keep her marriage and baby a secret from the world.

A young doctor at the hospital, in love with her, learns of her secret and so does the hospital head who demands that the doctor, whom he believes to be the baby's father, marry the nurse. But she refuses to marry the doctor, believing herself in love with the cadet. Matters are straightened out when she discovers which of the two she loves.

At the State tonight only is the Bud Abbott and Lou Costello comedy, "In the Navy", which also features Dick Powell, Dick Foran, the Andrews sisters and Claire Dodd.

The Grand's Wednesday double bill is: A comedy-romance, "The Bride Wore Crutches", featuring Lynne Roberts, Ted North, Edgar Kennedy, Richard Lane and Robert Armstrong; and "Roar of the Press", with Jean Parker, Wallace Ford, Jed Prouty, Suzanne Kaaren and Harland Tucker.

June, traditional month of brides found marriage license clerks in Ohio's largest counties doing a land-office business.

Business prosperity which made jobs plentiful and the prospects of draft deferment for married men were reported to be major factors in the issuance of a record number of licenses.

Cuyahoga (Cleveland) county's probate court licensed 1,665 couples compared with 1,342 previous high set in 1940.

Hamilton (Cincinnati) county set a new monthly record in May with 759 licenses, but broke it in June with 895. Lucas (Toledo) county did likewise with 902 licenses for June compared with 883 in May.

Columbiana county received 283 applications for marriage licenses last month, compared with 12 licenses issued a year ago. Mahoning county had 345 for a new all time high. The previous high was 312 in May.

Montgomery (Dayton) county experienced one of the biggest percentage increases, shooting from a June 1940 high mark of 343 to 519 last month. A record of 436 chalked up by Franklin (Columbus) county in June four years ago was shattered by 511 June licenses.

Appeals Conviction

COLUMBUS, July 1.—An appeal from her conviction of embezzling $10,800 from the guardianship estate of an incompetent has been filed in the appellate court here by Mrs. Agnes Dickinson, disbarred Columbus attorney. She is under a one to 10-year Marysville reformatory sentence.

28 NAVY WORKERS GIVEN DISCHARGES

SAN FRANCISCO, July 1.—Twenty-eight skilled civil service workers who naval spokesmen said, "could not be trusted to work around military secrets" have been discharged from Mare Island navy yard.

Rear Admiral John W. Green-slade, commander of the 12th naval district, said the dismissals—recommended after thorough investigations—were "purely precautionary."

Naval spokesmen said the investigations would continue and that further discharges could be expected. The men discharged will not be blacklisted from private employment, they said. Their names were not given out.

Sign Under Perjury Threat

The couple signed the statement under threat of perjury against the girl for having given the court a fictitious address.

Judge Hammond disclosed today that of a certain group of 91 girls who claimed to be Columbiana county residents, in applying for marriage licenses at the Lisbon courthouse within the past few weeks, only three proved to be bona fide residents.

The 89 others, the judge said gave wrong addresses. This was proven after checkups with postmasters in three towns in which the girls claimed permanent addresses.

Judge Hammond early in May ruled that there would be no waiver of the five-day waiting period to obtain a marriage license. He said he acted after many complaints reached his office.

The majority of the girls come from Pennsylvania and West Virginia, the jurist explained. In Pennsylvania the couples are required by law to obtain medical certificates before being married.

Garbage Strike Off

YOUNGSTOWN, July 1.—Collection of garbage from Youngstown homes and business places resumed today as 27 truck drivers accepted pay rate increases and ended a brief strike. The contracting firm brought the pay rate up to the former level of $1.95. It previously had been lowered on $1.70 a ton and increased a month ago to $1.85.

Funny Coincidence

HUNTINGTON, Ind.—Judge Otto H. Krieg was trying a divorce case when there was a terrific din in a street outside the courtroom.

He declared a recess so that everybody could go to windows and see what was up.

Friends of a couple just married were serenading them.

Your "eating money"

WHO TOLD YOU how to shop for groceries? Where did you learn WHAT STORES to patronize, WHAT FOODS to buy?

Did some neighbor tell you—or your mother—or a friend? Then who told THEM?

The fact is (and all of us know it when we think of it) the fine foods we enjoy have been ADVERTISED, by NAME. And they have been described and recommended in the home-making columns of the papers. Then, finally, the stores right here in town have told you they HAVE these foods and what the real bargains are this week.

This system makes it simple to shop, saves hours of frustration, dollars of wasted money. Oddly enough, food advertising costs the advertisers such a small fraction of a PENNY per family per day that it amounts to less than the cost of the cream that sticks to the pitcher!

And a single store ad can often save you enough to buy a whole meal for the family!

Some folks may think our American way of life is pretty faulty. It isn't perfect, by a long shot. But we've worked out some mighty swell short cuts and money savers in the U.S.

Fine newspapers full of REAL news—political, social and business news—yet mostly paid for by the very ADVERTISING that helps us to make our "eating money" go round, are just one example of how a FREE PEOPLE can solve problems EASILY while the crackpot nations FUMBLE over them.—Newspaper Publishers Committee, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York.

CONGRESS BEATS FISCAL DEADLINE

Appropriation Measures Speeded To President For Signature

WASHINGTON, July 1.—Congressional clerks today speeded to the President for signature more than $4,000,000,000 in appropriations, the product of the last strenuous session of the old fiscal year which ended at midnight.
Many members of the house of representatives cleared their desks and quit at 10:30 p. m., and the senate did not adjourn until 10:44.
Team-work between the two houses, marred only by minor disputes, cleared not only the key spending bills but also legislation expanding and continuing the commodity credit corporation.
The day's work brought close to $4,000,000,000 the record-breaking total of congressional appropriations and spending authorizations voted thus far this session.

Principal Measures
The principal measures dispatched to President Roosevelt during the lengthy day were:
The $910,905,000 relief bill; the $1,060,500,063 farm measure, including funds for "parity payments" to farmers; the $1,195,891-940 supply bill for the labor department and the security agency;
the $1,030,000,000 deficiency bill, providing more than $400,000,000 for 2,236 new naval planes; the $54,183,106 supply bill for the district of Columbia and the $25,002,256 appropriation for the maintenance of congress itself.

Also approved was a measure continuing the Commodity Credit corporation for two years from today and increasing its lending power from $1,400,000,000 to $2,650-000,000. The increase was necessary in part to provide for recently authorized commodity loans at 85 per cent of parity prices.
There were few record votes in either chamber as leaders brought up one big money bill after another.
The differences were largely over relatively trivial amendments, and the senate spent more time debating whether to grant the Works Progress Administration an additional $485,000 for administrative costs than on any other item.

Copeland Reports Farm Crops Aided

Favorable weather has put district farm crops in much better condition than they were at this time a year ago, District Weather Observer L. H. Copeland said today in a summary for June.

Many crops have made rapid progress since the late rains. The year, however, with a total of 13.78 inches of rainfall, is still short 5.14 inches of normal precipitation, he explained. The underground water

Most corn fields will be traditionally knee-high by July 4. The rains have been of great benefit to timothy hay, oats and pastures.
The wheat harvest will go forward with favorable weather, he said.

Total rainfall for June was 6.82 inches, with 1.56 inches recorded last Saturday. Total precipitation last June was 3.08 inches.

The maximum temperature last month, according to Copeland, was 91; the minimum 40. The mean reading was 67.8 degrees, compared with a similar reading of 66.7 in June, 1940. The high last June was 87 and the low 36.
There were 15 clear days last month, six partly cloudy and nine cloudy.

The warmest June on record was in 1934 when the mean temperature was 71.9. The coolest, with a mean reading of 60.3, was in 1927. June, 1928, had a total of 8.38 inches of rain, compared with the driest
June, in 1913, with only .72 inch.
The normal temperature is 66.1 and the average precipitation 4.23, the observer's 49-year records show.

Seek Murder Count

AKRON, July 1.—A new indictment charging first degree murder with intent to rape will be sought against Albert E. Lukens, 58-year-old church janitor now accused of first degree murder in the Easter morning slaying of Miss Ruth Zwickler, County Prosecutor Alva J.
Russell announced.

He said he would ask the grand jury for the indictment on the basis of a new statement made by Lukens to police. Lukens was arrested after the charred remains of Miss Zwickler's body were removed from the furnace of the North Hill Methodist church where Lukens was janitor.

counting on today's registrants for a substantial percentage of the 905-000 trainees President Roosevelt has authorized to be inducted in the next 12 months.

The "class of 1941" is regarded as far better soldier material on the average than the 16,900,000 men between 21 and 36 listed in the initial registration last Oct. 16.
Fewer will be physically disqualified, or deferred because of dependencies or employment in vital defense industries.

The accent on youth, reflecting modern war's demands on physical stamina, already is evident in the men drafted up to April 30.

Nearly 79 per cent were between 21 and 28 years old. In round numbers, the largest age groups were 55,000 of 21 year olds; 70,000, of age 22; and 60,000 men of 23.

The Don, with 15 women and 20 men and boys aboard had set out Sunday morning for Monhegan island. Searchers learned that the boat arrived there and departed again at 3:30 p. m., for what ordinarily would be a four hour run.

Dense Fog Settles
Before the boat reached home, however, a dense fog settled over the area. Even today, as a fleet of boats nosed through the rocky waters in search of more bodies of some physical trace of the missing cabin cruiser, Smith reported it was so foggy in lower Casco bay that it was difficult to see more than a few feet.

Fitzsimmons and Detective Thomas Walsh, planted in a bus terminal and equipped with a description of the fugitive, George Younes, collared him as he stepped from a bus.
Fitzsimmons said that Younes, a Syrian, admitted the knife slaying of Patricia F. Patrick of Youngstown, Ohio, in an Akron hotel room.

Younes was quoted as saying he snatched the knife from the woman when she attacked him during an argument over money, and then stabbed her twice.

Red Army Fails To Show Strength Yet

(By DeWITT MacKENZIE)

Ten days of fierce and destructive warfare along the two thousand mile front between the mighty German and Russian fighting machines has failed to produce conclusive evidence as to the Bolshevist powers of resistance to the most powerful army ever sent into action.

While the Nazis have driven deep into enemy territory, and claim that along the strategic Minsk highway in the center of the Russian line they have thrust their mechanized column something like half way to Moscow, they haven't yet won a decisive engagement.
They have laid the foundations for what may be a great and quick victory, but they still have to capitalize them.

However, Britain and her Allies will be rare to gamble that their respite from heavy German assault in the western theatre will be long.
Judging from past performances, and from present progress, Hitler
may be in Moscow in short order.
He may also have attained his other objectives, including the rich Ukraine.

That is still a matter of speculation. We lack information regarding the real strength of the much advertised Red army, and the stability of the vast Soviet union with its heterogeneous population of 170,000,000 or more.
One wonders whether Communist Chief Stalin himself has any idea of just how much power he has back of him, or whether he can harness and utilize what there is.

CONTINUE SEARCH FOR PICNIC GROUP

(By Associated Press)

HARPSWELL, Me., July 1.—Two bodies believed to be those of members of a picnic-fishing party of 35 aboard the cabin cruiser Don, unreported since Sunday, were found today near Bailey island in lower Casco bay.

One of the bodies, that of a woman in black slacks, was found a mile and a half southwest of the island by Claude Johnson, a fisherman.

The other, also that of a woman, was found on the east side of the island, which lies off Harpswell.

Most of the party, which left Dyer's cove Sunday morning bound for Monhegan island, 40 miles distant, were from Rumbold.

A wrist watch on the woman's body had stopped at 11:40. The dense fog settled over the coast at 11 p. m. Sunday.

Coast guards and state sea and shore fisheries wardens began searching for the boat yesterday.

The party—including women and children—set out gaily Sunday morning from Dyer's cove, Great island, on a trip to Monhegan island, 40 miles distant and about nine miles offshore.

Searchers learned that the boat reached the island on schedule and that it departed at 3:30 p. m. for home—ordinarily a four-hour run.
But more than four hours after she was due back, she had not been sighted.

Coast guard and state boats feeling their way through the fog since then reported monotonously that they had found no trace of her. Planes stood ready to assist in the search as soon as the fog lifted sufficiently.

OHIO TO COLLECT DEFENSE ALUMINUM

COLUMBUS, July 1.—Ohio's county commissioners and mayors were asked today to supervise the collection late this month of aluminum donated for defense purposes.

Gov. John W. Bricker's committee, planning Ohio's participation in the nationwide campaign July 24 and 25, called upon the city and county officials to enlist the aid of Boy and Girl Scouts, civic organizations, and similar groups in every community of the state.

Mayor F. H. La Guardia of New York, U. S. Director of civilian defense who called for the donations, was asked by the Ohio committee to obtain permission from the post office department for rural mail carriers to pick up donations.

Places where aluminum may be delivered will be announced later by mayors and commissioners.

40-foot fall while repairing a crane.

came here a year ago from Dover.
His wife, his parents, five brothers

GERMANY'S SPEED TROOPS MOVING UP

Claim Advance Units Are Near Smolensk, On Way to Moscow

Murmansk area, at the extreme northern tip of the vast line which stretches to the distant shores of the Black sea.

Counter Nazi Claims
Countering official German claims of having all but smashed the Soviet air force, Premier Joseph Stalin's high command emphasized that heavy aerial forces had been hurled into the assault on fresh Nazi troops driving toward Leningrad in the Dvinsk area, Latvia.

In its preliminary report today, Adolf Hitler's high command asserted that 280 Russian planes were destroyed yesterday, including 216 in air fights over the Dvinsk region.
The Germans left a clear implication that the advance "speed troops" which had knifed more than 200 miles into the U. S. S. R. toward Smolensk—about halfway to Moscow—did not comprise an army of occupation but rather a raiding column whose presence
"without doubt soon will prove most uncomfortable to the enemy."

This contingent on wheels, it was pointed out, has outstripped Napoleon's march on Moscow by nearly six weeks. Over the same route covered by the Nazi spearhead in a little more than a week, Napoleon launched his ill-fated drive on Moscow June 24, 1812, and came into sight of Smolensk Aug.
16.

Moscow Has Air Alarm

Moscow had its first air-raid alarm of the war shortly after midnight but no incidents were reported.

Conscripted men and women of Leningrad labored to fortify Russia's second city, menaced from the Finnish front and by a Nazi drive through the Baltic states.

The Germans claimed they took Minsk in converging drives through Vilna from East Prussia and through Baranowicz from Brest Litovsk—trapping two entire Russian armies beyond hope of escape in a triangle of steel around Bialy-stok.

A Russian division, battered by dive bombers, was reported trapped as firmly farther north by the German drive through the Baltic states to Dvinsk and the Daugava river, a third of the way to Leningrad.

The Germans also reported capturing Lwow, gateway to the fertile Ukraine, and said German and Rumanian forces driving into the heart of the great Soviet granary toward Kiev were finding large areas laid waste and deserted by retreating Russians.

Draftees Unwelcome

COLUMBUS, July 1.—Thomas E.
Dewey, New York district attorney and national chairman of United Service Organizations, says soldiers serving in America's defense army
"are downright unwelcome in communities surrounding their camps."
Opening a local USO fund drive, Dewey called upon Americans to "dig down in their pockets" so that a generation of young men won't come home from training camps disillusioned. "He told of seeing signs like this in the south, 'Soldiers and dogs keep out.' Coffee 9 cents. Soldiers' coffee 10 cents."

SWOC And Recreation Win, Continue In First Place Tie

CONQUER FURNACE AND CARROLLS TO STAY UNDEFEATED

Ward Allows Carrolls But Three Hits In 2-1 Victory

The SWOC and the Electric Furnace league leader and cellar dweller, further clinched their positions in the standings last night as the SWOC pummeled the Furnace, 10-3.

Wright held the Furnace team to five hits as his team mates pounded out seven drives and turned in an errorless game to back him up. Moffett drove out a home run for the winners in the last inning to score Dominetti, while Drakulich pounded out a double. Dominetti and Moffett got two hits each to lead the SWOC batters.

The Recreation remained deadlocked with the SWOC for first place as they edged out the Carroll club, 2-1, to give them a record of four wins and no losses in the second round of city loop play. The Sanitary, with three wins and no defeats, also had a perfect average today.

Ward allowed the losers only three hits, one a triple by Colien and another a double by Detell and Odum drove out doubles for the Recreation to score two of their four hits in the tightly pitched contest.

The defeat moves the Carrolls into seventh place in the standings. In the only church league game played last night the Trinity and the Presbys indulged in a hitting fest with the Presbys losing in first by a 12-11 score. The Presbyterians scored their 12 runs on 12 hits the Trinity threw in on 16 drives.

Youthful Pitching Staff, Distance Sluggers, Play For American League All-Stars

By EARL HILLIGAN

CHICAGO, July 1.—A lineup in which a brilliant, youthful pitching staff will be backed up by a crew of distance sluggers will represent the American league in the ninth annual all-star battle with the National leaguers July 8 in Briggs stadium, Detroit.

The American league squad of 25, named by the eight circuit managers, was announced today by league president, Will Harridge. On it are six players from the high-stepping New York Yankees; five from the Boston Red Sox; four from Cleveland; three each from Chicago and Detroit; two from Washington and one each from Philadelphia and St. Louis.

Del Baker of Detroit's American league champions, who will manage the junior circuit squad, may have trouble picking his starters for he'll have an abundance of stars for each position. Bob Feller of Cleveland likely will get the starting job on the hill on his 16th year, 3 lost record through June 29.

Should the 22-year-old Feller need help, Manager Baker will be able to signal the bull pen and get moundmen with everything—youth, experience, ability. There'll be Charley Ruffing, at 37 the dean of the staff, and Thornton Lee, 33, waiting alongside such younger ones as Sid Hudson, Edgar Smith, Al Benton and Marius Russo.

This American League squad—each member of which will wear his home uniform inasmuch as the team this year is the "home team"—will have the usual punch at the plate.

Two of its biggest guns will be Boston's lanky Ted Williams, who through June 29 held a 404 batting mark, and New York's Joe DiMaggio, who has been clipping along at record pace. In addition, there'll be such power sluggers as Jeff Heath, Roy Cullenbine, Cecil Travis, Bill Dickey, Charley Keller, Joe Cronin and Rudy York.

No. 1 veteran on the squad will be Boston's Jimmy Fox, who has been named to every all-star

American league squad since the inaugural in 1933. For Joe DiMaggio, next week's game will be his sixth time at the spectacle, while his team mate, Dickey, will be showing up for the eighth time.

Detroit's slender pitching star, Tommy Bridges, will not be on hand, nor will Buck Newsom, Emil Leonard, Monte Pearson and Al Milnar, all of whom were on the 1940 lineup.

The American league has won five of the eight contests played. The National leaguers won last year, 4 to 0.

Next week's game, given a break in the weather, may produce the third largest crowd in all-star history, for Briggs stadium can accommodate about 57,000. The largest two crowds to see this battle were 69,812 at Cleveland in 1935 and 62,892 at New York's Yankee stadium in 1939.

The American league squad which will play:

Pitchers—Bob Feller, Cleveland; Edgar Smith and Thornton Lee, Chicago; Alton Benton, Detroit; Sid Hudson, Washington; Charley Ruffing and Marius Russo, New York.

Catchers—Bill Dickey, New York; Frank Hayes, Philadelphia; George Tebbets, Detroit.

Infielders—Joe Gordon, New York; Ken Keltner and Lou Boudreau, Cleveland; Cecil Travis, Washington; Rudy York, Detroit; Joe Cronin, Bobby Doerr and Jimmy Fox, Boston; Luke Appling, Chicago.

Outfielders—Joe DiMaggio and Charley Keller, New York; Dominie DiMaggio and Ted Williams, Boston; Roy Cullenbine, St. Louis, and Geoffrey Heath, Cleveland.

Manager, Del Baker, Detroit; coaches—Mervyn Shea, Detroit, and Art Fletcher, New York; batting practice pitcher—Dave Keefe, Philadelphia; batting practice catcher—Steve O'Neill, Detroit; trainer—Dr. Gustav Nemitz, Detroit.

Game scheduled 1:30 p.m. (Eastern Standard time). If postponed, will be played Wednesday morning, July 9.

National Stars Injured

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 1.—The Brooklyn Dodgers have been awarded six places on the 25-man National league squad for the all-star game next Tuesday at Detroit, but it appeared today the Dodgers would have only five men ready for duty.

For Catcher Mickey Owen was in Caledonian hospital with a six-stitch cut over his left eye.

Owen was hurt in the second inning of yesterday's contest with the Phillies, when he was hit by a ball pitched by John Podgajny.

Illness and injury already had taken two of the original nominees, chosen by Manager Bill McKelvie of the world champion Cincinnati Reds with aid of the other league pilots. Outfielder Joe Medwick of the Dodgers was picked to replace Hank Leibert of the Chicago Cubs, and first baseman Frank McCort, mick of the Reds, the league's most valuable player in 1940, to supplant Dolph Camilli of the Dodgers.

Fifteen members of the winning 1940 team are on the roster. Mel Ott of the New York Giants and Billy Herman of the Dodgers have missed only once in the nine-year history of the game.

The four all-star "rookies" will be Brooklyn's Pete Reiser, Enos Slaughter of the St. Louis Cardinals

ZIVIC AND DAVIS BATTLE AT POLO GROUNDS TONIGHT

'Bummy' Aims for Outdoor Unpopularity Title; Holds Indoor Now

(By Associated Press)

NEW YORK, July 1.—Professor Mike Jacobs is producing "The regeneration of Bummy Davis" at the Polo grounds tonight, in 12 scenes, with Welterweight Champion Fritz Zivic helping Bummy see the light.

It is in the nature of a homecoming for Bummy, his first appearance in a New York ring since the hectic night last November when he fouled Zivic savagely against a dozen times and then tried to kick the referee, Billy Cavanagh.

Next week's game, given a break in the weather, may produce the third largest crowd in all-star history, for Briggs stadium can accommodate about 57,000. The largest two crowds to see this battle were 69,812 at Cleveland in 1935 and 62,892 at New York's Yankee stadium in 1939.

Riddle Leads League With Perfect Record

CINCINNATI, July 1.—Elmer Riddle, who'll be 24 the last of this month, leads the National league pitching parade with eight victories and no defeats in his second year of major league baseball and his second with the Cincinnati Reds.

The quiet young right-hander victimized the hapless Chicago Cubs last night 7-1 and was kept from his second shutout by Rookie Catcher Clyde McCullough's fourth inning homer. Elmer put the Cubs down in order in four rounds, gave only seven hits, walked not a single batter, and fanned six, four of them in the last three innings.

Until mid-June Riddle hadn't pitched a full game, although he'd won four, since then he beat the Giants, Dodgers, Phils and Cubs over the full route. He came to the Reds from Birmingham with an 8-6 record and last year won one and lost two. A fine curve ball and good control are his long suits.

The Reds are idle today and leave tonight for Pittsburgh to play the Pirates Wednesday and Thursday then return here with the Buccaners for a July Fourth double-header.

SPORTSMAN'S PARK PROVES ACHILLES HEEL FOR FELLER

Rapid Robert Loses Each Of Two Games Hurdled There This Season

By BILL BONI

(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Even the greatest of men, they say, has his Achilles heel. First of all there was Achilles, the guy who had the heel. Then, there was Samson, a sucker for a barber's chair. Now there's Bob Feller, whose weak spot, it seems, is Sportsman's park in St. Louis.

It's not the Browns who play there who bother him so much, it would appear, since Rapid Robert has beaten them twice in achieving his total of 16 victories. But those two triumphs came in Cleveland. By the banks of the Mississippi the fabulous Feller also has pitched against the tall-enders in two games, and each time they have shipped him to the showers.

Horrible To Behold
The way they did it yesterday was horrible to behold for all but a St. Louis fan, and there were only 1,408 of them in the stands. For six innings the Browns let Feller and the Indians coast along on a 6-3 lead. Then, before Feller or the Tribe could recover, they exploded for nine runs and a 12-6 victory that was Feller's first defeat in four starts and makes it three straight losses for Cleveland.

That dropped the Indians two full games behind the idle Yankees. The latter, returning to New York today, play a double-header with the Red Sox.

With the eastern half of the circuit taking a day off, the only other American league game yesterday saw the Chicago White Sox knock Schoolboy Rowe out of the box with two runs in the last of the ninth to trim the Detroit Tigers,

THE GUMPS

"THE GORGON'S MASK"

by Van Wyck Mason

CHAPTER TWENTY-FOUR
Abner Polk crossed the room with a brisk stride, and from the top drawer of a chiffonier produced a small automatic which he slid into the pocket of his coat.

"You see," he explained, over his wide shoulder, "I have no illusions as to the gravity of my position. Now, Captain North, I'll tell you a few things which I should have told you aboard the Malolo."

Hurriedly, the master of Kalua began to talk with the air of a man who faces an unpleasant duty and who seeks to get it over with swiftly.

"How much of this you already know, I can't guess," said Polk, passing a hand over his stiff gray hair. "But about a year ago I was approached by a German whose name is doubtless familiar to you." "Von Rentner?" North suggested.

"Quite right. He broached to me a plan whereby he, Armand Dumant, the French steel master, and I could clean up by engineering a war scare that would send steel shares rocketing sky high. Thoughts behind the pattern of his words seemed to be harassing Polk, who frowned. "I know it's an old game, but it's a good one. Buy low and sell high, just before the war scare dies."

"Well," continued the millionaire, "Baron von Rentner persuaded me and I went into it lock, stock, and barrel. At present I'm loaded up with thousands of shares of steel, bought all over the world. Potentially I am nearly a hundred million dollars richer than I was a year ago. But," into the deep voice crept a shaken note, "I would cheerfully give up every penny of that sum and the rest of my fortune as well to stop this business. In fact, that's what I'm going to do."

"What happened, Mr. Polk, to make you change your mind?"

Angry lights played at the back of the steel king's eyes. "I found that my partners had lied to me; in fact, Captain, they double-crossed me. I agreed only to building up a war scare, but they have planned to bring on a war between Japan and the United States with the Rome-Berlin axis neutralizing Britain and France."

The speaker's voice trailed off, and the faintly perfumed air seemed charged with a sudden tension.

"Yes," Polk pursued, "I discovered that these men have schemed to provide an action between the visiting Japanese squadron and our own. Besides that, they have, without my consent, brought another element into the plot. Just what that element is, I have only an idea."

"Tell me," North inquired gently, "was it the Transpacific Company that financed Wang Tso Kin's drive in China at the end of April?"

Amazement shone in Polk's eyes. "What made you think that?"

"Never mind—did the Transpacific finance that drive?"

"No—that drive was the greatest surprise I've ever had. I suppose it must have been that unknown element...."

North hesitated an impulse to mention the name of Nadia Stefan and so learn what, if any, the millionaire's action would be.

"Yes, Captain," the magnate was saying, "I suddenly discovered I'd been made a colossal goat. I guess Von Rentner thought I wouldn't dare stick at an actual declaration of war but he doesn't know me!"

Abner Polk got suddenly to his feet. "I've my faults, but I'm a loyal American—family's been that side of the water since 1730—and I'll never knowingly involve the United States in a war!"

North was aware, suddenly and vividly, that he was living through one of the great moments of his career. Starting from nowhere, he was now listening to an account of the greatest international plot since the forging of the Ems Dispatch that helped precipitate the Franco-Prussian War.

"This same afternoon," the steel master went on, while downstairs the crackle of tires on the driveway could be heard with increasing frequency, "I had a show-down with my partners; Dumant reached Honolulu last night. We had it pretty hot and heavy all afternoon; some pretty ugly names flew back and forth. I accused them of double-crossing me, and they accused me of not going through with my promises. I reminded them that I had only agreed to the purchase of the Transpacific property and to the subsidizing of old Wang Tso Kin, and his gang of cutthroats. And," he momentarily interrupted, the main theme of his discourse, "a pretty penny we had paid Kirin to buy those bandit armies!"

"When I asked them about that second offensive," Abner continued heavily, "they lied—and I knew they lied and told them so. They got ugly, but I demanded to know who that fourth partner or unknown element is."

"They told you?" The breath halted in North's lungs as he awaited the answer.

"No—they persisted in denying a fourth partner, and later they threatened me, indirectly of course, with terrible things if I didn't go through with their plot."

"You didn't tell them you were going to tell me the whole story?" Polk's brows contracted angrily. "Captain, do I look like a complete fool?"

"Sorry," North's apology was prompt and convincing. "Please go on."

"Well, I played the indecision role—said the affair was too risky. Dumant, as I'd hoped, blurted out the details of this plot to bring on a battle in Honolulu harbor."

"Did you commit yourself?" the captain inquired breathlessly.

"No, I temporized—I told them I'd think the matter over and let them know after dinner tonight."

He uttered a laugh, harsh as the rasp of steel on stone. "And to think that this dinner was planned as a sort of victory feast."

"I gathered the Transpacific covered its tracks pretty well in its dealings with Wang Tso Kin," North suggested.

"Of course. But in a safe, behind that picture," Polk pointed to a delicate Japanese water-color on a wall to the left—"I have documents which will give you authority to act, and the government ample proof of this plot. Those documents will, in fact, remove any chance of war! They explain everything to the Japanese Imperial Government and—"

"The guests are all here, sir," interrupted the valet, "and Madame Renore asks you please to come down."

"Thank you, Charlton. Tell Madame Renore we will be down in a minute." Polk moodily readjusted the gold strap of an expensive wrist watch. "Now, mind you, North," he added in a lowered voice, "you're still Nevins. You'll keep your eyes open. We must watch Von Rentner especially—he's a Prussian Junker to the core and hasn't a grain of scruple."

Polk drew a long breath. "After dinner I'll give you those papers, proofs records of stock purchases, and the receipts of our dealings with Wang Tso Kin, and," he added, "they'll amaze you."

The master of Kalua started for the door. "In the meantime you've got to be on guard against anything and everything. These men have more than their fortunes at stake in arranging this over; act that means war!"

Gripped by that torturing presentiment of misfortune, North sprang up and caught at the steel magnate's sleeve. "Can't you tell me in a few words exactly what this overt act is to be?"

The other shook his head with that domineering impatience which comes to men long accustomed to power.

"No," he snapped. "I want to give you the whole story in order. It's very complicated."

With that, Polk opened the door of his bedroom and murmured, "Come downstairs in about five minutes, and come in as unobtrusively as possible."

North, with a heavy sigh, cast a lingering glance at that print concealing the wall safe which held the precious secrets he had come seven thousand miles to get.

The dinner to which Captain North presently sat down was the most fateful and nerve-trying he had ever attended. At one end of the long narrow table sat Abner Polk, his powerful face utterly wooden, save for those mechanical smiles and other expressions conventional to a dinner-party conversation.

The intelligence captain was seated halfway down the table to the host's right. Alert to every nuance and undertone of the gay, nervous conversation, he could sense that the steel magnate was ruling his nerves with rigid determination, and succeeding far better than Armand Dumant. The Frenchman's manner was too quick, too painfully at ease to be genuine, as he chatted with Catherine Lloyd. She, alone among the guests, seemed utterly unaware of the significance of the occasion.

Ruling graciously, wittily, and observantly over the hostess's end of the table sat Phedre Renore, lovely in a particularly fascinating evening gown.

Hideyo Kanamura, evidently an old friend of Polk, sat like an impassive old ivory carving. He had concealed his emotions on finding North a guest.

As for Mademoiselle Nadia Stefan who, to North's complete consternation, had appeared in company with Baron von Rentner, she sat beside North, so utterly mistress of herself and her emotions that he was more than ever filled with admiration.

As for North, he found it next to impossible to believe that it was this woman who had so nearly brought him to a premature end.

He had met clever women in the game before, but never one quite like Nadia. He wondered, for a moment, if she did not have hypnotic powers.

"And was your fishing trip a success, Monsieur le Capitaine?" she inquired.

Betraying no trace of surprise that she knew of his trip to Maui, North shrugged with perfect good humor. "Very poor luck. We didn't catch a thing worth while."

"Fibber!" Nadia murmured sotto voce and fixed her devastating eyes upon him. Louder she said, "Be consoled, monsieur; game fishes are not easily caught. But you and Monsieur Kilgour yonder certainly did get most becoming coats of tan."

Then she added, "I have always wanted to be a sculptress. If I ever do become one, I shall want you to pose for me."

"I should be delighted," North smiled. "For what subject would I do—Mercury?"

Nadia Stefan's musical laugh ripped out in sheer delight. "Mercury? Mon Dieu, no! If my mythology is not quite wrong, Mercury was the god of thieves," she complained. "No, I do not think I would model you as Mercury."

Rescued in N.Y. Subway Fire

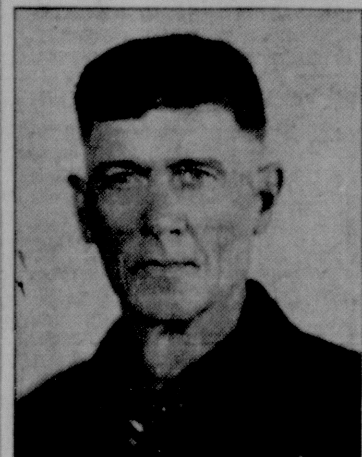

Firemen and subway employees assist passengers across the lethal third rail to safety as a blazing signal cable fills a New York subway tunnel with smoke and stalls West Side I. R. T. trains. Minor casualties resulted when the automatic blocking system brought trains to sudden stops.

"As Janus then?"
"De pire en pire! — Worse and worse! Though you try hard, mon ami, there's really nothing two-faced about you. You almost are almost naive."
"Merci bien," said he as Nadia began to arrange some almonds in a daisy-like pattern. "No," she went on, "I think I would model you as Aeneas, 'strong in battle and wise in council.'"

PAIN AND CRAMPING IN LEGS; PRESENT RELIEF DUE TO TON JON NO. 3

Wife's Conversation With Neighbors Led Jefferson County Man to Find Relief He Had Long Sought.

WILLIAM ELLIOTT

"It would be hard to describe just what a hold Prostate Trouble had on me at the time I started taking TON JON No. 3, but I'm like a different man now," said Mr. William Elliott, of Rayland, Ohio, R. No. 1, Box 36, near Steubenville. Mr. Elliott has been a resident of this vicinity almost a half century and is a member of the Methodist church.

"Before I found my present relief, the Prostate trouble was so bad I couldn't get any sleep, as I would have to be up so many times at night to relieve my kidneys. I would have to go two and three times before the passages would start and there would be pain and burning with the flow when it did start. All this was very straining and soon told in my health by making me very nervous and run-down. This poor kidney action must have caused a backing up of toxic poisons for my legs would pain and cramp and the back of my neck would ache. I had taken other medicines for my troubles but they would only flush the kidneys and make the urine pass too fast."

"My wife heard of TON JON while visiting neighbors and advised me to try it for my kidneys and prostate and as soon as I could I did try it and I'm thankful I did for the relief I gained was truly remarkable. Now the passages are never delayed, but are complete and are never irritating. I am going to pass the word along at every chance for TON JON so it can help others as it did me."

When relief from Kidney and Prostate Trouble may mean so much to your happiness and even your success in life, surely you owe it to yourself to at least learn more about these remarkable medicines. The TON JON Health Representative is daily at Broadway-Lease Drug Store, Salem, Ohio.
